NEW YORK STATE CLASSICAL TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

We are very happy to announce to our readers that a number of gentlemen interested in the teaching of the classics have been successful in forming a Classical Teachers' Association for the State of New York.

The matter was first broached last Christmas at the meeting of the New York State Teachers' Association. Owing to the efforts especially of Professor Bristol of Cornell University it has now taken shape. The aim of the association is to advance the interest in the study of classics by affording classical teachers a common ground for the interchange of ideas as to courses and methods of teaching. It is intended to meet once a year, during convocation week, in conjunction with the other, and larger, association, to present papers and have discussions. The movement is thus similar to the one started at the last meeting of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools for the Middle States and Maryland, at Princeton, to which we referred in our report of that meeting.

That the association will be successful seems to be a foregone conclusion, if one peruses the list of officers: Professor Bristol is the President, Professor F R Parker of the Cortland Normal School the Vice-President, and Dr Downing, of the Syracuse High School, the Secretary. The Executive Committee consists of Mr H H Bice of the DeWitt Clinton High School, New York City, formerly President, and at present, Censor of the Latin Club, and Miss Marion Platt, of the Schenectady High School.

The editors of The Leaflet extend to the new association their hearty good wishes, and venture to express the hope that the relations between the association and The Leaflet may become increasingly closer. It would indeed seem that there could be no better medium of publicity for the association than our paper, devoted as it has been for the last five years to the same aims and purposes as the new corporation.

The Leaflet and the Latin Club of New York are always glad to be emulated.
